Three Counties Are Affected By Truckers Strike

Tieup Begins Today As Negotiations Fail To Provide Settlement

PICKETS ARE OUT AS STRIKE STARTS

Teamsters Union Local 261, went out on strike this morning at 12:01 o'clock—for the first time in the history of the truck freight industry here. Lawrence, Mercer and Beaver counties are affected, with about 325 members involved in the walk-out.

Spokesmen for the Teamsters Union, (truck drivers) Alfred J. Masaro, president of the Union, in a statement said:

"We have leaned over backwards to avert this strike. We only ask that they (the operators) give us (Teamsters Union) the same consideration as they give local unions surrounding the New Castle area. The main issues involved are a 7 1/2 cents per hour wage increase, which would total $1.40 trailer and tractor drivers; and $1.33 for straight jobs. We are asking for six paid holidays. We feel that since some of the companies have offered as much as 13 cents hour rate increase which would total $1.50 per hour—Local 261 should have the same consideration."

Negotiations Fail

Since last week, negotiations between the Union and operators have been in progress. But, at a general meeting held at the CIO hall Sunday afternoon, negotiations reached the deadlock stage, and members decided to uphold the strike vote taken last June 19. Federal conciliator Charles Ward of Pittsburgh and state mediator, Troy Burns, of Butler, were in New Castle, to meet with the negotiating committee and operators, but a mutual agreement was not ascertained to avert the walk-out.

Pickets have been placed at all prominent docks of the freight industry, where no agreement has been reached by the company and union. However, the Teamsters union will respect other local freight industry unions, in surrounding areas, whose contracts are in good standing, it is announced.

No statement was issued by the operators today.

Freight Piling Up

Freight is piling up at the Pennsylvania railroad freight station on West Washington street as a result of the strike by the truckers. Pickets are stationed at the entrance of the station to see that no trucks load or unload goods at the station.

An order to keep freight from coming to the station will be sent out if the strike continues for any length of time, according to officials of the railroad.

With local trucks tied up as a result of the strike that developed this morning, traffic on New Castle streets early today was rather unusual. The numerous big trucks usually appearing in the traffic lines were missing, and autos almost exclusively had the streets taken over.

With numerous local road projects planned in the county this year and next, many of the direction marking signs with mileage found on them will have to be changed. The newer roads are shortening the distance between district cities.

Traffic on Route 8 between Slippery Rock and Butler late Sunday was of holiday proportions. It was noted by a member of the PA News family who had occasion to (Continued on Page Two)

Near Showdown On President's Plan For Sharing Atomic Secrets

By FRANK B. ALLEN (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(INS)—Capitol Hill opponents of President Truman's proposed plan for sharing atomic secrets with Britain and Canada are moving toward a showdown before Congress adjourns.

This became evident today as two powerful congressional leaders joined the forces opposing the chief executive's atomic cooperation plan.

The two are Sens. Tydings (D) Md., head of the Senate armed services committee, and Hickenlooper (R) Iowa, former chairman of the joint Congressional Atomic "Watchdog" committee.

Sen. Knowland (R) Calif., leader of the opposition, bluntly declared that the administration "has no legal or moral right" to disclose such information to any other nation.

It became clear that unless the senators are assured that Mr. Truman does not intend to carry out his purported plan, they will demand action by Congress to block it.

Hickenlooper supported Knowland's stand by declaring:

"No one except the Congress of the United States has the right to change the clear intent of the law."

At one point in last week's backstage furor over Mr. Truman's proposal, a bloc of atomic senators were ready to introduce a resolution aimed at putting Congress squarely on record as saying that the McMahon atomic act bans the disclosure of secrets to other countries.

Okinawa Is Swept By Severe Typhoon

TOKYO, July 25.—(INS)—Battered Okinawa was threatened today with a possible new windstorm in the wake of a devastating typhoon and torrential rains that killed at least one person—an American child—and injured several others.

Damage was expected to run high.

After cutting a wide swath of destruction Saturday across the big island, 300 miles south of Japan, the typhoon—named "Gloria" by U. S. meteorologists—whirled westward and struck the China coast south of Shanghai last night.

Coal Industry Top Officials To Give Testimony

Will Tell Senators Why They Dislike Three-Day Week Ordered By Lewis

By PHILLIPS J. PECK (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Three top officials of the coal industry will tell Congress today why they dislike the three-day mine work week ordered by John L. Lewis.

The trio will testify before a Senate Banking subcommittee headed by Sen. Robertson (D) Va. The group is investigating the power exercised by industry-wide labor organizations with a view to possible legislative curbs.

The witnesses are Harry M. Moses, head of U. S. Steel Corporation's coal subsidiaries; George H. Love, president of Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co., and John D. Battle, executive vice president of the National Coal Association.

France Pushes Plan To Ratify Atlantic Pact

PARIS, July 25.—(INS)—The French government marshalled its forces today to win parliamentary ratification of the North Atlantic pact before the summer adjournment Thursday.

The chamber of deputies resumed debate on the issue in the face of Communist opposition and an internal dispute which threatened to delay a final vote on the defense alliance.

The domestic dispute was touched off by the action of Labor Minister Daniel Mayer who authorized a bonus for workers in the Social Security administration.

The Labor minister, who reportedly acted without consulting Premier Henri Queuille, gave the Social Security workers a holiday allocation equal to a fourth of their monthly salary.

Other Labor groups demanded a similar allowance and the Christian Trade Union, backed by the Communist-led CGT (General Confederation of Labor) has threatened a strike unless its workers get such a bonus.

Registration In County Is 43,872

Report 872 Voters Added To Registration List On Last Day, Saturday

ENROLL 2,853 IN CLOSING WEEK

Although registrations Saturday failed to break the record set for the general election in the fall of 1940, there was an unusually large number of voters who presented themselves to get qualified to vote at the fall primary in September.

872 members of the major parties being enrolled.

The Republicans led by six votes, the figures of Chief Clerk A. Lewis Conn reveal 439 Republicans being enrolled during the day, against 433 Democrats.

2,853 Last Week

The last week was an unusually busy one, 2,853 voters being registered in addition to a large number who came in to get their addresses changed, or to change their party affiliation.

The final registration figures show that 43,872 persons are registered to vote at the primary, of which number 30,283 are Republicans and 13,197 are Democrats, with 92 registered for other parties, including the Prohibition, Independent and No Party.

This is the second largest registration ever noted here, the largest being in 1940, when over 46,000 were registered to vote in the general election, a presidential year. This year's general election registration may eclipse this figure. (Continued on Page Two)

Compromise On Educational Aid Bill Proposed

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(INS)—A house interstate commerce subcommittee votes today on a compromise which may pave the way for action on the controversial 300 million dollar federal aid-to-education bill.

The measure indirectly created a furor when Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York accused Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt of being anti-Catholic because she allegedly opposed the allocation of government funds to denominational schools.

Chairman Priest (D) Tenn., of the house committee said the compromise would permit Catholic and other private schools to share in federal grants for child health.

He predicted that the group

Credit Buying Shows Increase

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(INS)—Government figures indicate today that a pre-war American habit of credit buying—is on the increase.

The Federal Reserve Board said in a summary of the buying situation in 1948 that cash purchases are giving way to greater charge account and installment credit sales.

Last year 71 cents of each dollar spent in retail stores was in cash while 29 cents involved credit.

A wartime peak in cash payments was reached in 1945 when 80 cents out of every dollar spent represented a cash purchase. Since then the figure has been declining.

Dock Workers In London Return

But British Labor Government Faces A Nation-Wide Rail Slowdown

(BULLETIN)

LONDON, July 25.—(INS)—London's 15,000 striking dockers returned to work today but the British Labor government faces a nation-wide rail slowdown.

Representatives of 450,000 rail workers are slated to meet in London today to decide whether to invoke a "go slow" policy because the National Railway Conciliation board has barred 130,000 shophmen from wage talks.

The cabinet also meets today to discuss the whys and wherefores of the dock strike and probably will deal with this new threat to its burdened transport system.

The three-week dock tieup, which was called in sympathy with a Canadian Seaman's union jurisdictional strike, ended when a CSU official said to Canadian ships in London's port would leave.

The British Labor government termed the dock strike Communist-inspired.

Falls To His Death In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, July 25.—(INS)—A man identified as Edward Trainer, about 50, of Doylestown, Pa., fell to his death today from an upper story window of the Widener Bldg. in mid-Philadelphia.

Police said the victim's body narrowly missed pedestrians as it tumbled to the ground. Trainer's skull was crushed in.

He was pronounced dead at Hahnemann Hospital and the body was removed to the morgue.

Police said they believed Trainer, identified by papers on his person, had jumped from a men's room window on either the 10th or 16th floor of the building, located across the street from city hall.

Postpone Fight For Aid To China

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(INS)—Advocates of China aid postponed today their fight to obtain 100 billion dollars for the nationalist government until the State department issues its "white paper" on China policy.

Sens. McCarran (D) Nev., and Knowland (R) Calif., laid aside their plan to include help for non-Communist China in the pending five and one-half billion dollar Marshall plan appropriation.

McCarran said they may offer their proposal as an amendment when the 150 million dollar Korean aid bill comes up in the Senate.

The climax of the 45-minute address was Van Zandt's views on the soldier's bonus issue. Van Zandt has campaigned personally for that bill for several months, and he told the group that 75 per (Continued on Page Two)

Report Changsha Is Evacuated By Chinese Troops

CANTON, July 25.—(INS)—Chinese Nationalist troops were reported today to have evacuated Changsha, key Nationalist base in south central China, but observers said that the Communists apparently were in no hurry to enter the city.

The Hunan province capital, key city on the Hankow-Canton railroad, was under pressure of a three-pronged Communist attack with one column reportedly five miles away.

The government troops are said to be regrouping near the Hengyang rail junction, 100 miles south of Changsha, which leads into the Kwangsi and Kwangtung provinces.

Bridges Blown Up
The Nationalist forces of Gen. Pai Chung-Hsi were said to have blown up road and rail bridges before withdrawing from the city, which is 400 miles north of Canton.

Dispatches from Changsha said the Communist troops were converging on Chuekow, a vital rail junction 20 miles south of Changsha.

Loss of Changsha would give the Communists control of more than one-third of the Hankow-Canton railroad and partial control of one of China's richest food producing areas.

The Communists also claimed the capture of Yoyang, the so-called "gateway to North Hunan", which is 60 miles north of Changsha last Wednesday. The Communists also reported a major offensive was underway in northern west China.

The driver of the third vehicle was not injured.

Four Considered As Probable Head Of GOP Committee

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(INS)—The Republican national committee today appears determined to elect one of its own members as the new GOP chairman while possibly naming an "outsider" to help organize the party for the 1950 elections.

At the moment, four committee-men lead all others as favorites for the post. They are: Harold E. Mitchell of Connecticut, Guy George Gabrielson of New Jersey, former Gov. Ralph F. Gates of Indiana and Howard W. Stephens of Missouri.

Talk of selecting a non-member to be "organizational director" for the 1950 campaign centers on Nebraska state chairman A. T. "Bert" Howard, former Rep. J. Edgar Chenoweth of Colorado and Hanford MacNider of Iowa.

Two formal proposals to give GOP congressional leaders an official voice in naming the new chairman met with frosty receptions both on Capitol Hill and in the committee itself.

President Truman Asks Congress To Pass Arms Aid Bill

Sum Of $1,450,000,000 Is Asked As Arms Aid For Friendly Nations

President Says Aggression Against Western Europe Will Be Resisted

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(INS)—President Truman declared in unmistakable language today that the United States will resist with "military power" any aggression against the peoples of western Europe.

The chief executive asked Congress to speedily enact a $1,450,000,000 arms aid program for friendly nations so that, in the event of attack, these nations can resist until "our own power can be brought to bear."

Mr. Truman gave assurance the United States will not share its atomic secrets under the program.

In outlining the United States position under the Atlantic Pact, the President declared:

"At the present time, the military power which is the greatest deterrent against aggression is centered in the United States, three thousand miles away from Europe. It must be made clear that the United States has no intention, in the event of aggression, of allowing the peoples of western Europe to be overrun before its own power can be brought to bear."

"The program of military assistance now proposed is tangible assurance of our purpose in this regard."

Warning Aimed At Soviet
He directly implied that this warning was aimed directly at the Soviet Union and declared that the military aid program has been made necessary by the "atmosphere of fear and danger" created by Russia.

A draft of the proposed legislation sent to the capitol with President Truman's message specifies that "nothing in this act shall alter, amend, revoke, repeal or otherwise affect the provisions of the atomic energy act of 1946."

Rockets Fired From Ship Deck Go Up 65 Miles

NEW YORK, July 25.—(INS)—The Third Naval District disclosed today that rockets fired from the deck of a U. S. Navy vessel cruising in the Pacific have penetrated 65 miles into the upper atmosphere.

The American-built rockets were fired aloft from the deck of the U. S.S. Norton Sound, a specially-fitted tender, at the geomagnetic equator, 700 miles off the west coast of South America.

The navy plans to launch later other rockets from Arctic waters as well as the tropics.

Each rocket, the announcement said, carries 150 pound of scientific instruments to further cosmic ray studies.

Data gathered from the 65-mile-high flight are already in the hands of Dr. James A. Van Allen of Johns Hopkins, who has predicted that man one day will build satellite space platforms continuously to circle the earth.

The firings, the navy said, took place in March. Earlier, German-made rockets were fired from the deck of the Carrier Midway.

Federal Judge Declares Rent Control Is Void

Says Local Option Provisions Of 1949 Bill Make Measure Unconstitutional

(BULLETIN)

CHICAGO, July 25.—(INS)—Federal Judge Elwyn Shaw today declared the entire rent control act of 1949 unconstitutional and void because of local option provisions which permit state and local areas to end rent control.

Judge Shaw declared the local option provisions were an unauthorized delegation of the powers of Congress.

The judge said:

"I must find the entire act invalid, and being invalid, this court has no jurisdiction and the judgment of the cause is dismissed for want of jurisdiction."

Result of Suit
His decision resulted from a suit brought by the Chicago area Rent Office against the Shoreline Cooperative Apartments.

Judge Shaw said the local option section of the act is a part of the whole act and could not be ruled on separately. For that reason, he ruled, the entire act is void.

The housing expediter had sought an injunction seeking to restrain the Shoreline Apartments from evicting 16 tenants because "the corporation had not proved 65 per cent of the owners were residents as provided under the law."

President Signs Ratification Of Atlantic Pact

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(INS)—President Truman today formally effected United States participation in the North Atlantic Pact.

The president signed the instrument of ratification of the treaty in a ceremony in the cabinet room of the White House at 11 a. m.

France and the Netherlands still must ratify the pact before it comes into force.

Grouped around him were the leaders of Congress, members of the cabinet, including the secretary of state and secretary of defense, high state department officials, and General George C. Marshall, the former secretary of state.

In signing the pact, the president hailed it as "a historic step toward a world of peace, a free world, free from fear but it is only one step."

"We have malice toward none. . . . We must keep ourselves morally and materially strong. We must play our part in helping to strengthen freedom everywhere."

NEW YORK, July 25.—(INS)—A 13-year-old huntress was in New York City today making arrangements for another expedition to the Belgian Congo—this time for the most dangerous of Africa's big game, a Cape Buffalo.

The James boys were born a bit soon I'm afraid, for they could have done mighty well, by abandoning guns and holding up trains, and instead run a summer hotel. They wouldn't have any chance with the law, no possums would camp on their trail, and they could have gone to the south come the snow, instead of reclining in jail. # Senator Proposes Clearing House For Federal Jobs

Investigators Still Tracking Down Washington's Influence Peddlers

By CHARLES B. SEIB
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(INS)—Sen. Mundt (R) S. C., proposed today to eliminate so-called "five percenters" by setting up a clearing house for information on government contracts.

Mundt's suggestion came as army and government agency investigators reportedly joined forces in tracking down "leads" in the Senate probe of Washington's influence-peddlers.

Copies of the closely-guarded diary of James V. Hunt, whose alleged activities set off the inquiry, have been given to the Army, War Assets Administration and possibly other agencies for use by their investigators.

Register With Congress

Mundt also proposed that persons charging a fee for the aid they render businessmen in obtaining federal contracts be made to register with Congress.

The South Dakota is a member of the Senate subcommittee probing the "five percenters." He said that because of the large amount of federal buying "it is almost impossible" for a small businessman to know how to get federal contracts.

The Hunt diary is said to contain much "interesting" information on Hunt's work as a Washington "management consultant."

Hunt Denies Charges

A New England manufacturer's published assertion that Hunt claimed he had influence with government officials prompted the subcommittee probe headed by Sen. Hoey (D) N. C., Hunt has denied that he used influence to help his clients.

Hoey has disclosed that the diary contains the names of several Senators and Representatives, but "doesn't necessarily indicate they are connected with any improper transactions."

The Senator said it also refers to Maj. Gen. Alden Waitt and Herman Feldman who have been suspended by Army Secretary Ogray as result of the investigation.

Hunt is expected to be a key witness when public hearings open next week, unless illness keeps him off the stand.

Tape grass, eel grass or wild celery is an aquatic grasslike plant which grows in slow waters. It is common from New England to Minnesota, and south to Florida and in Texas. It is said to be favorite food of wild ducks.

ing a possible new menace to Okinawa as well as other American occupied islands.

U. S. air force reconnaissance planes flew out from Guam and scouted "Hester" but reported back by radio they were unable to find the core of the second windstorm. The scouting operations were continuing.

Saturday's typhoon, which developed winds up to 175 miles per hour and brought a downpour of 3.85 inches of rain, struck down people, houses and military installations on Okinawa, one of America's major bases in the western Pacific.

American Girl Killed

Killed was the seven-year-old daughter of a U. S. air force officer. She lost her life when a typhoon hit in which she and her family lived was blown down. Two other children in the same family were critically injured.

Among other casualties were nine American airmen who were slightly injured.

No reliable estimates of the damage could be made, pending more complete information from the debris-dotted island. But it was believed in Tokyo the toll may run into many millions and that the typhoon was the worst Okinawa had suffered since it was conquered by American forces.

Spend Much On Cars, Not Roads

Motorists Spend Too Much On Cars And Not Enough To Rebuild Old Highways

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(INS)—The Brookings Institution charged American motorists today with spending too much money on new automobiles and not enough on relieving overburdened highways.

The public service organization took this position in publishing a study prepared by Wilfred Owen. It said:

"Most of today's roads are not adapted to the requirements of heavy volumes of high-speed traffic.

"At the same time, the cost of constructing modern highways has risen to where, even outside metropolitan centers, it sometimes reaches a million dollars a mile. Superficial alteration of existing roads is no longer adequate."

The study said that at present only five to ten cents of the highway transportation dollar is applied to the provision for highway. It claimed that the remainder is absorbed by vehicle purchase, gasoline and other operating items.

Thomas Edison held more than 1,100 patents on his inventions at the time of his death.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN ASKS CONGRESS TO PASS ARMS AID BILL

made it clear that the United States has no intention of sharing its atomic weapons with treaty nations. He said:

"The military assistance which we propose for these countries will be limited to that which is necessary to help them create mobile defensive forces."

Assistance Of Three Types

The President called for assistance of three types:

"First, a limited amount of dollar aid to enable them to increase their own production of military items without impairing their efforts for economic recovery.

"Second, the direct transfer of certain essential items of military equipment.

"Third, the assistance of experts in the production and use of military equipment and the training of personnel."

The state department made public the following breakdown of the administration's arms program.

Breakdown Of Program

1. Equipment and technical aid to the North Atlantic Pact countries, $929,450,000.

2. Assistance to stimulate increased military production by the North Atlantic powers, $155,000,000.

3. Equipment and technical aid to Greece, Turkey, Iran, Korea, and the Philippines, $300,580,000.

4. Presidential emergency fund, $45,000,000.

Administration cost, $10,970,000.

The state department declared in documents made public simultaneously with the President's message to Congress that the arms program is necessary because of "fear and insecurity in the world" stemming from Russian aggression and the "malignant growth of international Communism."

Mr. Truman charged that the Soviet Union "has done its utmost to prevent European recovery."

CONTINUE COLD WAR

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(INS)—The state department declared today that the $1,450,000,000 foreign rearmament program has been necessary by "fear and insecurity in the world" stemming from Russian aggression and the "malignant growth of international Communism."

In strongly worded documents, the department served notice that the United States will press the cold war on all fronts in the face of anticipated Soviet attacks on the program designed to bolster the defensive forces of friendly democracies.

In documents made public simultaneously with President Truman's request to Congress for enactment of the program the department sketched the post-war world events which led to the development of the program.

will approve the compromise, worked out by Priest and House Democratic Leader McCormack of Massachusetts, with acceptance by the full commerce committee coming later in the week.

The proposal aimed at ending opposition by Catholic and other private institutions to the Barden bill, which specifically eliminates non-public schools from sharing in education funds.

Rep. Woodhouse (D) Conn., meanwhile, predicted in a radio broadcast that the house education and labor committee soon will recommend a federal aid-to-education bill, but declined to say which of various proposals will be favored.

Police Watch For Traffic Blockades

Both State and city police were summoned to several points this morning, the report having been made that strikers were stopping trucks.

State police promised arrests if strikers violated the law and Police Chief Robert D. Hanna also said arrests would be made of the law was violated.

of each week until a new pact is signed.

Negotiations between the UMW and the operators will resume tomorrow in White Sulphur Springs and Bluefield, W. Va.

The National Coal Association reported over the week-end that the short work week has "seriously" affected Great Lake coal shipments and cut national production from about 12 million tons weekly to six million, 600,000 tons for the week ended July 16.

Industry is not pinched for coal, however, because of the abnormal large stockpiles on hand when the three-day week began. Moses said steel would not feel a fuel shortage for four or five months.

CALABRESE-MAGNO

PLEDGE OF VOWS

A fingertip veil of French bridal illusion and Chantilly lace attached to a bonnet shaped head-dress of French illusion and Chantilly lace accentuated the charming bridal costume which Miss Clara Calabrese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Calabrese, 21 Sankey street, wore for her marriage on Saturday to Harry Magno, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Magno, 634 Forest street.

The pretty double ring ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Fr. Albert Inteso in the St. Vitus church.

The bride was escorted by her father. Her gown was of real lace and featured a marquisette ruffled underskirt and a colonial neckline with a marquisette yoke. Long fitted sleeves tapered at the wrists and a flowing lace train further complemented the costume. Her only jewelry was a gold cross, a gift of the groom's mother and she carried a satin bound prayer book, centered with an orchid and showered with Stephanotis. The customary something old, new, borrowed and blue was also carried out.

Maid of honor, Miss Margaret Magno, sister of the groom was attired in orchid embroidered organza fashioned with a decollete neckline and a tiered skirt. A matching picture hat, white mitts and an old fashioned colonial bouquet of mixed flowers were the attractive accompaniments.

Bridesmaids, the Misses Theresa Vascetti, niece of the groom, and Miss Marie Rogers, cousin of the bride of Lowellville, Ohio, were dressed identically to the honor maid in aqua and wore the same type of accessories.

Miss Billie Ann Miller, niece of the groom was junior bridesmaid. She wore an orchid frock styled similarly to the bride's and carried a colonial bouquet of mixed flowers.

James Vascetti, nephew of the groom, attended him as best man, and the ushers were Albert Padula and Carmen Smarielli.

The wedding breakfast was served at a local dining room. The Fidelity Companions, the club to which Mrs. Magno belongs, were aides at the dinner which was held at a local tea room. Anthony Frasso and his orchestra supplied the music for the evening reception which was held at the Ecclesiac club. Later, the young couple departed for a honeymoon to Ocean City, N.J. Upon their return, they will reside at 602 West Washington street.

Mrs. Magno attended New Castle high school and is employed in the Gold room of the Shenango Pottery. The bridegroom is a New Castle high school graduate, and served three years with the U.S. Navy, doing submarine duty in the Pacific area. He was graduated from the Robert Morris School of Accountancy in Pittsburgh and is employed as an accountant with the Bell Construction company this city.

Russia Planned Infiltration In Agencies In '29

Former Communist Party Organizer Gives Testimony To House Committee

By SAM FOGG
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, July 25.—(INS)—Russia agents were plotting 20 years ago to place Communists in key government agencies according to information made public by House spy probes.

This hitherto secret testimony by Paul Crouch, an admitted former Communist party organizer, was given out by the House un-American Activities committee.

Crouch, an employee of the Miami Daily News who served the party for nearly 20 years, named scores of his former associates as Communists and linked the American Communist party directly with Moscow.

Parts Kept Secret
The committee declared that portions of the evidence given by Crouch are still being kept secret "in the interest of national security."

The witness said he learned of the Communist campaign to infiltrate government positions in 1929 from a Russian secret police agent in company with a Nicholas Dozenberg, whom he named as a fellow Communist.

He said they met the Russian in New York in "a fashionable west side apartment house" where they discussed the now defunct youth Communist league. Crouch testified:

"The Russian was primarily interested in the question of any YCL members in the State department or other branches of the government, the possibilities of placing members in such jobs, urging that all with any possibility should apply for government jobs in Washington, and he also indicated the greatest interest in obtaining blank American passport books."

Official Joined Party
The witness also charged that a high government official, whose name was withheld in the committee publication, joined the party after he gained a position of influence. The testimony read:

"Before entering the Communist party he was assistant to (name deleted as (---)) administrator and held various other positions of trust."

"He has many friends among government officials from whom, if he is still with the party, he might be able to obtain information of importance to national defense."

Crouch said he did not know whether the official broke with the party.

ments of tanks and heavy guns in every strategic spot under Russian domination from the Baltic to the Black Sea.

Many historians have held to the axiom that if two gigantic military establishments remain facing each other for a sufficient length of time, one gun is bound to go off and after that comes the fusillade.

This is the viewpoint that has been taken by circles opposing the pact not on financial grounds but upon the risks of war that it might entail.

The overwhelming vote in the Senate shows that this, however, is the minority view and that the North Atlantic treaty, as written, just gives the plain and simple guarantee that any aggressor simply will be stopped in his tracks. It is a vast undertaking. Its repercussions and ramifications will be felt for years to come.

Chartes Street Curbs To Be Capped

Council Provides For Action;
Other Matters Before Council Session Today

Property Director Joseph D. Alexander today told colleagues in council meeting in City hall, that plans, for several years had promised to cap Chartes street curbs and he believed the time had arrived to do the work. Streets Director James Gibson and Safety Director Richard I. Davis supported Alexander's stand, with the result that, bids for the work will be taken. It will cost about $4,500. The curbs were put in during WPA days and have deteriorated badly.

Two ordinances sponsored by Streets Director Gibson were adopted. One calls for a storm sewer in an alley south of Lutton street from Williams street, a distance of 70 feet. The other calls for construction of curbs in Cascade street between Butler avenue and the south line of the B. & O. R. R. side-track, according to payment by the foot front rule.

Establish Fire Zones
Upon motion of Safety Director Davis, the committee gave a favorable report to an ordinance authorizing the establishment of fire zones in the city which prescribes the character of building material, and type of structures. There will be three divisions, namely, primary fire zone, secondary fire zone and non-fire zone. The ordinance was sent to be printed, pending a final vote.

On August 12 morning council will view several properties to determine if they are nuisances. Two are in the rear of 202 North Jefferson street, and the other at 317 Neshannock avenue.

Barney Ross Weds Dancer

DEL MAR, Cal., July 25.—(INS)—Barney Ross, former world's welterweight boxing champion and Marine hero, was honeymooning today—for the second time—with dancer Kathy Howlett.

They were first married in July, 1942, and divorced in 1946. Ross, who fought a widely-publicized battle against the "dope habit" after winning hero honors on Guadalcanal, and Miss Howlett, a dancer, were married in a civil ceremony Saturday at Del Mar.

Yesterday they were remarried in a Jewish ceremony.

Ross and his wife will return to New York, where he is associated with an advertising agency, after their honeymoon.

Attending the religious ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Al Johnson, Harry James and his wife, Betty Crabbe, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Adler and others.

Young Man Being Held For Robbery

PITTSBURGH, July 25.—(INS)—William Ellis, who reported the theft of an $80 watch and $60 in cash to police Saturday, wanted a lawyer today to get him out of jail.

His story of the beating he received prior to the robbery, checked out right, but when officers questioned him further, he became evasive and contradictory.

He took a swing at Police Lt. John Cavanaugh when the lieutenant said he was going to detain him.

Police searched the 23-year-old Pittsburgher's room where they found a wallet, bearing the name of W. J. Finley of New York City. They also found an undisclosed sum of money and a key to Finley's room in a Pittsburgh hotel.

A further check revealed that Ellis has a record of larceny offenses dating back to 1942.

He was held on charges of assault and battery, resisting arrest, larceny and for questioning of a June 24 robbery.

GENERAL WEDDING INFORMATION

Question: Is it permissible to address one invitation thus: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond M. Jones

Mrs. Frederick Smith (same address)—daughter

Also may I send one invitation to three single sisters all living at the same address?

Answer: The married daughter should have a separate invitation, if possible. The man and his wife should, of course, receive a joint invitation and the three single sisters, living in the same house, may receive a joint invitation. Whenever possible, all adults should receive separate invitations, except as stated above, in the case of man and wife.

Question: How far in advance should wedding invitation be sent? Is it necessary to send them to the attendants and to the groom's family?

Answer: Mail them about three weeks in advance of the wedding day. By all means, send one to each adult member of the groom's family, as well as to the attendants.

Question: Who should give the rehearsal supper?

Answer: It is a gracious gesture for the groom's family to give it—and quite proper too, although of course not obligatory. This will lift some of the financial burden from the bride's family who have both the responsibility and expense of the entire wedding.

Question: I am to be married in the church rectory and would like to know if I must wear informal clothes. I would like to dress as a bride.

Answer: Marriages of this kind are usually quiet and brides generally wear either travelling clothes or afternoon dresses. You may, however, wear a bridal gown and veil if you wish. If I were you, I should consult the officiating pastor as to rules regarding the number of guests and attendants that can be accommodated in the rectory.

Princeton High School Grads In Annual Reunion

Charles Blair Named President Of Alumni Association For Next Year

Princeton high school graduates had an enjoyable time on Saturday, when they gathered at Grove City Memorial Park for the third annual reunion of the Princeton alumni.

Although one of the newer high schools, the list of graduates is beginning to be a large one, and many of the former pupils there were in attendance at the gathering.

A fine program of sports was enjoyed, along with swimming, prior to the basket picnic dinner at 6:30 o'clock, which event was in the hands of Mrs. Raymond Baldwin. Lemonade and coffee were provided by Mrs. Marian Boomer and her committee. The sports were in charge of John Leonhardt.

Officers elected for next year were: president, Charles Blair; vice president, Charles Myers; secretary, Mrs. Esther Leonhardt; treasurer, Mrs. Elsie Sherman.

The time and place for next year's reunion will be left in the hands of a committee to be named later by the president.

Slaying Result Of Tavern Taunt

LAWNSIDE, N. J., July 25—

(INS)—Earl Glover, 22, a Lawnside oilworker, was held without bail today on charges of slaying a man who taunted him about drinking soda in a tavern.

The victim, Harold Fussell, 31, a Camden construction worker, was shot to death in his automobile. Police said Glover admitted firing the shotgun blast. He allegedly told detectives that Fussell teased him about drinking the soda water. He said Fussell then grabbed the glass and poured the soda over his (Glover's) head.

The construction worker was slain shortly after he left the tavern. Glover surrendered voluntarily.

King's Chapel Church Has Varied Program

Methodists Observe 145th Anniversary Of Homecoming On Sunday

Perfect weather was in store for members of King's Chapel Methodist church Sunday, when the 145th anniversary of the homecoming was observed with a fine attendance at each of the services. Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, of Pittsburgh, conducted a Communion service in the morning at 11:00 o'clock, when he gave an appropriate message. Bishop Wicke is the fourth bishop of the Methodist church to speak at King's Chapel. Rev. Margaret Wallace, assistant pastor of Smithfield Street Methodist church, Pittsburgh, dedicated a Communion table, presented by descendants of Anne and William Richards, Rev. Wallace is of the seventh generation of that family.

Vespers In Afternoon
W. Stanley McArdle, organist of Foxburg, offered a recital at 3 o'clock, followed by vespers at 4 o'clock, when Dr. A. P. Weaver, of Grace Methodist church, Grove City, spoke on "Reminiscences." Letters were read from former members of the church and also one from Miss Ella Porter, of Flint, Mich., oldest living member of the congregation. An original clipping from a "New Castle News" of 1903, when the 100th anniversary was completed was also read. Mrs. A. T. Eckles spoke on "Memories of the Past."

Samuel Reese spoke on the present church, while Homer Matthews told of what may be accomplished by King's Chapel in the future.

Gives Chalk Talk
Rev. Thomas Russell, of Unity Presbyterian church, West Middlesex, a chalk talk artist illustrated and told the story of the hymn, "The Ninety and Nine." This is a traditional hymn at King's Chapel, as it was written by Ira D. Sankey after he was converted at that church many years ago. Rev. Merle Weaver, pastor of the church, also led the singings at 8 o'clock in the evening. Solos were offered by David Lewis, leader of the choir of the Central Christian church.

Flowers, given in memory of deceased members, decorated the auditorium. Mrs. Helen Dygert was general chairman of arrangements. Picnics were features at 12:30 o'clock and also at 5:30 o'clock.

Fourteen Alleged Members Of Gang Of Bandits Held

PITTSBURGH, July 25.—(INS)—Fourteen alleged bandits who lived high and easy on the loot from more than 60 robberies today face identification from their victims in Pittsburgh.

The group, all alleged members of a "T-Shirt" hold-up gang which specialized in robbing gambling houses, outdoor "crap" games and stores coupled with a few kidnappings, was rounded up last week after one of their members confessed to Allegheny county detectives.

One Pittsburgher, suspected of complicity, is being held in Los Angeles. A woman suspect is being questioned further in Pittsburgh. Police said Malcolm Epstein, 38, became angry when his friends failed to get him an attorney and "put the finger" on the mob. Epstein was being held on a morals charge.

Chief of County Detectives Charles Johnston has promised gamblers they need not fear prosecution if they appear and identify the mobsters. He said he is interested in the robberies, not the gambling.

Victims of robberies in Ohio, West Virginia and the Pittsburgh District are expected.

House To Vote On Banishing Poll Taxes In South

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(INS)—The House will vote today for the first time in eight years on a proposal to ban poll taxes in seven southern states.

The action will be largely a gesture, for the Senate has always filibustered such legislation to death. There is nothing to indicate that southern senators have had a change of heart.

The anti-poll tax bill is the first civil rights legislation to be acted upon by either house in almost seven months of continuous session.

No attempt is expected to be made by Senate leaders to call up the House bill before adjournment unless administration chieftains decide to make a last-minute gesture.

Court House

Kurtz Property Bought By County

County Acts On Recommendation Of Grand Jury For Detention Home

OTHER NEWS OF COURT HOUSE HILL

Approval was given by Judges W. Walter Brahm and John G. Lamoree, sitting en banc, of the petition of the county commissioners presented by County Solicitor William McElwee, Jr., to purchase the Kurtz property, which lies north of Court street, consisting of approximately an acre and quarter of ground, from the Greater New Castle association for the sum of $500. This site will be used for the erection of a detention home, the commissioners announce.

The property was once owned by Dr. John Early and was a show place. Rare trees and shrubs are planted on the property but it has fallen into neglect and disrepair and was sold by the county for taxes, the Greater New Castle association acquiring it.

The property is shaped much like a huge piece of pie. It is bounded on the west by the Pennsylvania railroad, this boundary being somewhat circular in shape, and is accessible from Hiram way, off Milton street, or Kurtz Place, off Court street. The old mansion on the property is to be torn down. Recommendation was made by a recent grand jury that the county acquire the property and erect a detention home thereon, the present detention home being considered unfit for such purposes.

COUNTY SCHOOLS NEED TEACHERS

It was announced today by County Superintendent of Schools John C. Syling that the county schools are in fairly good shape for teachers this fall, particularly the high schools, but that some primary and elementary teachers are needed in some of the districts.

Music teachers are needed at Wampum and Mt. Jackson, Mr. Syling stated, with intermediate teachers being needed for positions at Volant and Mt. Jackson.

An elementary teacher is needed for a one-room school in Slippery Rock township and grade school jobs are open at Rose Point and Chewton. The boards are working to have these places filled before school opens in September and have several more weeks in which to continue their search.

SUITS ARE FILED

Two actions in trespass have been filed in the prothonotary's office as the result of recent automobile accidents in the county. John Gadd, of 734 Clay street, Niles, O., has entered suit vs. Wilbert Haigler of 120 South 12th street, Sharpville, for damages in the sum of $665.05, as the result of a collision on Route 422, one mile east of the Ohio state line, in which Gadd claims Haigler ran into his car which was out of gas and parked with all four wheels off the curb on October 9, 1948.

Wayne Cramer has sued A. C. Baker of Bay Village, O., over a collision which occurred on Route 108 near Harlansburg on July 17, 1949, in which Cramer charges Baker went over the center line and crashed into him. A writ of attachment has been issued against Baker's car, said to be in a local garage undergoing repairs.

Union Members Aid Youth's Recovery

BOSTON, July 25.—(INS)—An 11-year-old Tampa, Fla., boy is on the way to recovery today from a delicate heart operation in Children's hospital.

And Robin Ledbetter owes thanks to the generosity of his father's fellow workers, and Massachusetts union members.

Members of the United Cement, Lime and Gypsum Workers Union, to which his father, Marshall, 32, belongs, raised the necessary funds to send Robin to Boston. He was suffering from an abnormal heart condition.

In answer to an appeal for blood donors to repay the hospital's blood bank, members of the AFL Cement Workers responded immediately, while other union groups said their members would give blood within the next few days.

"Assignment; America"

By INEZ ROBB
(Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.)
(Distributed By International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 25.—All the world loves a lover, especially if his love is a reasonable facsimile of Cinderella. And, who am I to cast a negative vote?

Two recent cables from abroad have just brought tender reassurance that the United States is not the only land where a bobo can bag her Rockefeller.

The British counterpart of Mr. Winthrop Rockefeller's wooing and winning of a beautiful bride from the Pennsylvania coal fields is now on the record.

It is contained in the announcement by a King George VI, more widely known as the father of the celebrated English can-can dancer, Princess Margaret Rose, that his nephew, the Earl of Harewood, is engaged to a very pretty little Viennese refugee.

There is not the slightest hint of any opposition on the part of the royal family to this alliance between the grandson of the Dowager queen Mary and the hitherto obscure girl who has been helping to piece out the family budget as a professional pianist.

It is just possible that the royal family breathed a sigh of relief when Pere and Mere Stein showed a charitable willingness to overlook their future son-in-law can-can connections.

Like Bobo, the working girl who lived in a walk-up flat under the Third avenue "el" and who snared the most eligible bachelor in New York from under the noses of society's fast-working debutantes, Miss Stein has walked off with one of the chief matrimonial prizes in the British Isles.

The fact that the young earl is eleventh in line for the throne, and nephew of the king cuts some ice—but not nearly as much as the fact that in these lean English days he is one of the richest young peers of the realm. Aristocracy you can have for the asking in England, but dough is what nobody's got in quantity anymore.

The earl's late father was one of the richest peers in England and it is presumed that the present earl and his only brother whacked up a good sized estate, even minus tremendous death dues, when the late earl died during World War II.

It was concerning the late earl, who married the princess royal (only sister of King George VI), that the Duke of Windsor during the brief days of his kingship spoke an immortal bon mot.

Of his brother-in-law, a tall, horse-faced, haughty man, Windsor complained:

"He gets royal and royal all the time as I get commoner and commoner."

It is probably just as well that it is only the royal family and not the late earl who has to sanction the marriage of his son to the little refugee who lives in a small, walk-up flat in London's most middle-class residential district.

The other Cinderella item from abroad comes from La Belle France and carries the winsome intelligence that a Miss Ida Passerotti, a poor but honest miss who has been earning her vichyssoise and crepe suzettes as a golf caddy at a Riviera club, has caught the revolving eye of the Aga Khan, pappy to Aly Khan and daddy-in-law to America's Rita Mayworth.

It is reported that Miss Passerotti is such a satisfactory caddy that the Aga is building a villa for her, although—so the dispatch says—the Riviera set "will be surprised" if he marries her.

The Aga already has one wife, known as the begum. But I presume his loyal Moslem followers would not begrudge an extra wife

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A young writer with a considerable reputation on Broadway was given a contract by a powerful motion picture studio. When he turned in his first scenario, the head of the studio called for an aspirin and the writer's agent.

"Get rid of this fellow quick," he bellowed. "He's such a high-brow I bet he writes failures on purpose!"

Carry on, men.

The most notable building in Odense, Denmark, is the cathedral of St. Canute. It is the best example of Gothic architecture in Denmark and was built in the 13th century.

The malapropisms of Hollywood big-shots are becoming a pretty threadbare subject, particularly since the public became aware that most of them originate in the minds of columnists and press agents. Here are a couple, however, which I believe to be authentic.

When "The Best Years of Our Lives" was previewed, the producer assured an interviewer, "I don't care if this picture doesn't make a nickel, just so long as the whole United States see it."

One producer borrowed a troupe of Indians from another, but when they reported for work he didn't think they looked fierce enough. He called his friend to protest. "I don't know what you are talking about," exclaimed the latter. "Those Indians come straight from the reservoir."

Housing Program Speed Up In State Being Forecast

HARRISBURG, July 25.—(INS)—State Commerce Secretary Theodore Roosevelt III today forecast a speedup in the commonwealth's planned $50,000,000 housing program.

He said 12 housing authorities have indicated plans to submit projects for consideration by the state housing board which will be the clearing house for the program.

They were the cities of Bethlehem, Connellsville, Erie, Harrisburg, Johnstown, Reading, and York and the counties of Allegheny, Beaver, Lycoming and Montgomery.

The York and Connellsville authorities, he added, have been formed since the legislature adopted the housing program last spring.

The state will allocate $15,000,000 for the program while the balance is expected to be poured into projects under the federal government's housing plan recently enacted by congress.

Twenty Others To Participate

Twenty other housing authorities established in the state are expected to participate in the program, according to Roosevelt.

Redevelopment authorities, which will be granted $4,500,000 of the state's total allocation, have been established to reduce slum clearance in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Easton, Beaver Falls and Johnstown, Roosevelt said.

The state's redevelopment program will be supplemented by the federal housing blueprint, according to Roosevelt. It calls for matching state or local funds on a two-to-one basis thus making a $13,500,000 program possible in the state.

Competitive bidding, he said, for the authority to construct and operate state-subsidized housing projects will result in economies which will make it possible to realize maximum construction.

Free Methodists Have Final Camp Sessions Sunday

Third Camp Year On Local Grounds Proves To Be Most Successful

Camp season for 1949 at the Free Methodist camp in the Croton district is history, and today and the rest of the week is being spent in "breaking camp". Ministers, laymen and others will be found on the grounds over the week in overalls, dismantling the tents and storing the camp materials for the 1950 season.

Sunday proved an outstanding day, as the camp meetings were brought to a close. Beginning early in the morning motorists and walkers began arriving on the camp grounds with every available facility of the large camp in operation. Many were fed at the large cafeteria, with meal hour extended over a longer period in order to accommodate those desiring to be fed.

Closing speakers for the camp meeting were Rev. C. E. Zike, who was heard in the afternoon, and Rev. J. E. Hollister, who spoke to the vast Sunday evening audience which more than overflowed the large tent. A public address system was set up to assist the audience in hearing.

Assisting Rev. Paul Splitstone, district superintendent, in the operation of the camp were the following district ministers: Rev. G. H. Woods, Rev. R. R. Blews, Rev. A. C. Thompson, Rev. Elton Fox, Rev. Paul Booser, Rev. H. W. Haskins, Rev. E. L. Maynard, Rev. Robert Magee and Rev. J. W. Hills.

The state's redevelopment program will be supplemented by the federal housing blueprint, according to Roosevelt. It calls for matching state or local funds on a two-to-one basis thus making a $13,500,000 program possible in the state.

Route 422 Closed At Mt. Chestnut

No Through Traffic Permitted On Route East Of Portersville To Butler County Town

Local motorists who desire to travel to Butler via Wurttemberg and Mt. Chestnut, the latter on Route 422, will find that the road is closed at Mt. Chestnut where the new road from the Lawrence County line joins the old road.

Some motorists are under the impression that the road is closed only at Dixie Inn at the Lawrence County line. Extensive work is under way where the new and old roads join at Mt. Chestnut and due to the moving of machinery and the presence of many workmen no through travel is permitted on Route 422 east of Portersville.

The entire section of road from the Lawrence County line through to Mt. Chestnut in the vicinity of the Deshon Veteran's hospital will be thrown open to public travel some time late this summer.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

Getting Ready for Old Age.

It's common knowledge today that people are likely to live from 15 to 20 years longer than they used to. This fact has many implications. One of the most important is that we should begin to plan for our old age. Old-age pensions, insurance and annuities can take care of the economic side of things. As important is building the foundation for busy and happy later years.

Children grow up and leave home. Parents who have centered everything in them may feel lost. Men may live a good many years after retiring from work. Unless other than work interests have been developed, these years may be long and dreary.

More and more, then, we see how valuable are interests and hobbies. It is not likely that these can be developed easily after the main business of life is done. Those who in their earlier years have begun to find satisfaction in things outside family and work interests will be the happy older people. They will not have to cling desperately to their grown children or become fussy, complaining old men and women. It will pay, then, to spend time developing "outside" interests even when one's children are small and when work could easily take all one's time and interest.

"If in the event there is an acquittal, you will be reimbursed for time lost."

County Catholics To Hear Address By Louis Budenz

Ex-Communist And Now Foe Of Communism To Speak On Catholic Day, August 3

LOUIS BUDENZ

Louis Budenz, one-time a member of the Communist party but who since 1945 has severed all ties with the Reds, will be the principal speaker at the Catholic Day, August 3, at Cascade Park.

Mr. Budenz has written a best-seller, "This Is My Story," where in he states the reason for his rejection of Communism, which was made public on October 11, 1945, and the reason for his return to "the faith of my father, the Catholic church."

Born on July 17, 1891, in Indianapolis, Mr. Budenz attended St. Xavier's college, Cincinnati (now Xavier university), St. Mary's college, Kansas. In 1912 he was admitted to the bar of Indiana. In the same year he became editor of the Carpenter, an official organ of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, then the largest union of the A. F. of L.

From 1915 to 1920 Mr. Budenz was secretary of the Civic league, outstanding St. Louis municipal reform organization. As editor of Labor Age from 1920 to 1930, he took personal charge of the Althea—a strike and lockout in Kenosha, Wis., in 1928 and was responsible for one of the first great labor victories over the injunction, contributing to the passage of the Norris-LaGuardia Act.

Persuaded by the promise of the People's Front policy of the Communists in 1935 Budenz joined that party in October of that year. He became labor editor of the Daily Worker and in 1937 editor of the Midwest Daily Record, Communist organ in the Chicago area.

With anti-Communist pressure in the nation during the Hitler-Stalin pact, Budenz was named president of the Freedom of the Press company, Inc., which now "took over the publication of the Daily Worker." He was president of this corporation and managing editor from June, 1940, to October, 1945.

Meets Msgr. Sheen

But Louis Budenz finally met Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen in 1936. By 1943 Budenz decided to return to the Catholic church "at all costs." Then for two years he waited, hoping to reconcile Communism and Catholicism, a thing which he found is impossible.

Thus, on the Feast of the Maternity of Mary, October 11, 1945—Mr. Budenz and his entire family, including his wife, who was born and reared a non-Catholic—were received into the Catholic church in St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York. Msgr. Sheen received them.

One year later Budenz started the nation by declaring that Gerhard Eisler was the representative of the Communist International in the United States. Eisler has been convicted twice.

All of this is only a mere part of Budenz's life, which is interestingly related in "This Is My Story."

Today Budenz is assistant professor of economics at Fordham university with a special course in labor-management relations.

Mr. Budenz is only one of the highlights included in the Catholic Day program scheduled at Cascade Park for all Catholics of Lawrence county.

Princess Rebukes Officers Of Swank Grenadier Guards

LONDON, July 25.—(INS)—Britain's Princess Elizabeth "pulled her rank" today on officers of the swank Grenadier guards.

The Princess, who is an honorary colonel of the ultra-social regiment, rebuked ungentlemanly officers for unbecoming conduct at their annual dinner which she attended.

In effect, the heiress to the British throne wrote Lt. Col. E. H. Goulburn, commanding officer of the Grenadiers, that it's not polite to heckle and interrupt after-dinner speakers—even if they become a bit boring.

Col. Goulburn admitted there was "overloud joking and shouting" at the dinner but denied there was any real rowdiness or hooliganism. He added:

"I don't think it will occur again."

Nevertheless, the Guards club committee sent a letter to all officers who attended the dinner saying:

"The committee wish to draw attention to the fact that the dinner has become increasingly boisterous since the war."

"Her Royal Highness, the colonel, has mentioned that the interruption of speeches showed a lack of manners."

Shaw Has Grown Wiser And Sadder

LONDON, July 25.—(INS)—George Bernard Shaw, who in his youthful middle age claimed his plays the equal of Shakespeare's, has grown wiser and sadder with the times.

The noted Irish wit was quoted today by the London Evening Standard as saying:

"I have no desire to be immortal."

Shaw, on the eve of his 93rd birthday, told the Standard: "Death is now knocking at my door. But it is not an unwelcome guest."

RELIEF ROLLS GROW

HARRISBURG, July 25.—(INS)—Pennsylvania's relief rolls passed the 350,000-person mark during the week ended July 16 and the state department of public assistance today saw no immediate reversal of the upward trend.

General assistance needs during the week added 1,965 persons to the lists, the department said.

Ninety per cent of the increase was blamed by the DPA on the continued decline in employment.

The week's rise was the fifth in a row and the second largest since early in 1946, according to the department.

WALLPAPER MAJESTIC PAINTS

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL (International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, July 25.—Terry Moore, a curvaceous 20-year-old blonde, is the new white hope in the eyes of Harry Cohn, Columbia studio boss.

Cohn is convinced that the vivacious starlet is certain to be a sometime-successor to the high comedy-adventure roles made famous by the late Pearl White.

Certain, that is, unless the gal gets a reputation as an animal trainer—real or otherwise.

Nice Folling At the moment Miss Moore is the foil of a 12-foot gorilla in John Ford and Merian Cooper's rip-snorting "Mighty Joe Young." The picture opened the other day at 368 theatres and to 500,000 equally rip-snorting patrons in New England and Upper New York State.

But that is only a portion of the tale.

Terry's initial screen role was the ingenue lead opposite Lassie, the canine star, in an M-G-M picture entitled "Son of Lassie."

After proving her worth as a co-star in the animal kingdom, Terry was promptly put into the lead, with Glenn Ford, in another epic. This time she played opposite a horse in a comedy called "Return of October."

Can Handle Wolves Too When Ford and Cooper were shopping around for some cutie who could handle 12 feet of temperamental African gorilla, their eyes quite naturally lit upon young Miss Moore.

She was just right for the part—simple, unaffected, with a high sense of humor and by now a thoroughly developed sense of what should, and what should not, be done with animals.

So Miss Moore supports "Mighty Joe Young," 12 feet of ape, in the flicker of the same name.

Who then should bust into the scene but Jimmy Durante and Producer George Pal, looking for a gal who had the physical beauty—which Terry does—and the mental ability—which Terry does—to captivate an animated squirrel.

She's No Nut Next time you see Miss Moore, therefore, her co-starring screen partner will be a squirrel, in "Rupert II," up for release this fall.

There is no telling where Terry will wind up, the animal kingdom being practically virgin territory to Hollywood movie-makers.

But at the rate "Joe Young" and "Return of October" are clicking with the picture-going public, an elephant might yet be exactly the correct size partner for the effervescent Miss Moore.

Second Lt. Eloise Hahn, daughter of William H. Joseph of Beckford street, has been admitted to the Army and Navy General hospital, Hot Springs National Park, Ark., as a patient.

TWO ARE DROWNED ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Ohio, July 25.—Blake Van Fossen, 17, and Richard M. Bann, 16, were drowned in Piedmont Lake near St. Clairsville, Ohio, Sunday.

Both of the boys were good swimmers, but they had eaten a hardy meal before entering the lake, and a doctor said that this had probably caused cramps.

St. Clairsville, Dennison, Cadiz, and Piedmont firement worked for three hours in an effort to revive the victims.

Colorado Farmers Take Big Cut In Wheat Allotment

Agriculture Secretary Brannan Orders State To Pare Acreage 35 Percent

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(INS)—Colorado farmers are taking the stiffest percentage-wise in 1950 wheat acreage allotments as far as growers in the 17 major wheat states are concerned.

Colorado planters were ordered by Agriculture Secretary Brannan to pare down their next year's acreages by a whopping 35 percent. By coincidence, Colorado is Brannan's home state.

Indiana with a reduction of 13 and one half per cent gets off lighter than any other of the 17 big producers.

State by state allotments are being dished out in line with a national total of slightly less than 69 million acres announced a few days ago. This compares with more than 83 million acres planted for the present crop.

Real Headache Remains
One other step—the real headache—remains to be taken. County committees must now get together and decide how much each individual farmer may plant to stay within the state goal.

There's a strong incentive for farmers to avoid overplanting their allotments because the government will not support the price of wheat sold by any farmer who overplants.

While tightening up on next year's wheat production, the Agriculture Department is taking steps to provide more storage for whopping 1949 grain harvests.

Plan New Facilities
It has announced plans to buy bin and similar type storage for an additional 50 million bushels of grain.

Brannan says the new facilities will be located chiefly in Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, South Dakota and Wisconsin.

At present the government owns only about 45 million bushels of storage.

The new structures will be put up by private contractors and bids will be opened in Washington on Aug. 3.

Coming this late, the new storage won't be of much help as far as storing 1949-crop wheat is concerned. Actually, Brannan said recently that the wheat storage situation is considerably improved over earlier in the season.

Expect Much Corn
Clearly, the new program indicates that the government expects to be taking very large quantities of corn under price support loans later this year.

Placement of the major part of the new storage space in the great corn belt states is proof of this. Brannan told a recent news conference that the department is off to a running start in meeting the corn storage problem. Presumably, the new building program was one thing he had in mind at that time.

The department may also repeat last year's performance when it held meetings with farmers throughout the corn belt to tell them how they could expand storage space by putting up low-cost temporary structures.

Dutch Farmers Plan State Plants Visit

WASHINGTON, July 25.—(INS)—The Economic Cooperation Administration said today that 27 visiting Dutch farmers are planning to inspect farm machinery factories and meat-processing plants in Illinois, Iowa and Pennsylvania next month.

They are part of a group of 33 farmers who have been in this country for the past three months under ECA's technical assistance program, taking on-the-job training at farms in 14 states.

The plants will be visited as the group moves on to complete the second phase of its six-month training period.

Hubert Humphrey Is Steelworkers' Picnic Speaker

District 21 Annual Outing Scheduled At Conneaut Lake Park September 11

HUBERT HUMPHREY

Honorable Hubert H. Humphrey, young United States senator from Minnesota, has accepted the invitation as principal speaker at the United Steelworkers of America, CIO, picnic of District 21 scheduled for Sunday, September 11, at Conneaut Lake Park.

John W. Grajcar, district director of the United Steelworkers, announced this today.

Senator Humphrey, former mayor of Minneapolis, achieved national prominence last November when he defeated for re-election Senator Joseph H. Ball, Republican.

Although only 38 today, Sen. Humphrey became the youthful Mayor of Minneapolis at the age of 33. The "Political Tornado," as he is generally referred, is practical and liberal in his views. Before entering his political career, Sen. Humphrey was a professor of political science at Macalester college in St. Paul, Minn.

Plan Program
In addition to Sen. Humphrey, the executive committee has arranged an elaborate program for the entire day. More persons are expected to the park this year than the 50,000 record-breaking crowd who attended last year.

An industrial exposition is also being arranged by the committee in order that the District 21 membership may view the many diversified products manufactured within the area. Fifty companies are to participate.

Mrs. Roosevelt Has Mailed Reply To Cardinal Spellman

HYDE PARK, N. Y., July 25.—(INS)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt has mailed a reply to Francis Cardinal Spellman's letter criticizing her for what he termed her "anti-Catholic" statements in her daily column.

Miss Malvina Thompson, secretary to Mrs. Roosevelt, said today that a reply was sent to Cardinal Spellman yesterday. She said Mrs. Roosevelt is not divulging its contents.

At the Cardinal's residence, a spokesman said that the letter has not yet been received. The spokesman added that today's mail has not been sorted, and that "there is a great stack of it."

The spokesman declared that there is "no comment" now on the exchange, nor any indication whether the reply of the former first lady will be made public.

The Cardinal, who denounced Mrs. Roosevelt's statements regarding the Barden federal aid to education bill, called her statements "documents of discrimination unworthy of an American mother."

Attempted $15,000 Robbery Is Foiled

Chase Through Pittsburgh Results In Capture Of Two Bandit Suspects

PITTSBURGH, July 25.—(INS)—Henry Verscharen's cool daring coupled with the alertness of two Pittsburgh police officers foiled an attempted $15,000 robbery early today and led to the capture of three suspects.

In a melodramatic chase, Verscharen, owner of several suburban Pittsburgh food markets, accompanied by his secretary, Mrs. Josephine Stackowitz, zig-zagged through suburban streets at 90 miles an hour to elude two pistol-wielding bandits.

They had attempted to force his car off the road on a steep hill. Verscharen said he had with him the day's receipts from his enterprises.

Shots Exchanged
Two officers, John Kusanovich and Russell Myers, entered the chase at an intersection and exchanged about 17 shots with the bandits before the gunmen abandoned their car.

Later a police dragnet picked up Virgil Toney, 39, and his brother, Claude, 25, nearby. Police found the keys to the abandoned car on

A third man, Felix Dugan, 35, who was being questioned by officers Kusanovich and Myers when the Verscharen car roared by on squealing tires, later turned himself in when he heard police were looking for him.

He said his presence in the neighborhood at an early hour had nothing to do with the attempted holdup. He was, Dugan claimed, waiting for a girl friend.

GARDEN NOTES

August is harvest month for many flowers, fruits and vegetables, as well as for most herbs. Herbs grown for their leaves should be cut and dried now.

Vines which have made extra long growths may be headed back somewhat but pruning from now on till winter should be confined to repairing damages and removing sucker growths from stocks which have been top-grafted.

Roses, phloxes and other herbaceous plants which are subject to mildew or rusts should be kept dusted with sulphur or sprayed with Bordeaux mixture.

As perennials finish blooming, particularly phlox, be sure to remove the tops. If they are left on they will seed themselves and the garden will eventually be full of phlox of undesired colors.

Red spider mites are often active on evergreens during spells of dry and hot weather. Spray the trees with cold water or lime-sulphur at summer strength.

Pick lima beans while they are still green. Press the low end of the pod between the thumb and finger. If it feels spongy, you may be sure that the beans are full grown and ready for the table.

Ban On Coal Tax Hits Local Units Revenue Source

Legislature Outlaws Levy On Coal And Other Resources In 1949 Session

By JOHN HARMS
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, July 25.—One hundred and ninety local tax agencies are attempting to tailor tax structures to recapture $2,000,000 annual revenues lost when levies on resources were abolished by the legislature.

When the 1949 General Assembly prohibited taxation of coal and other natural resources and farm products, and the state supreme court branded them illegal, 190 boroughs and townships and school districts lost their main source of revenue for local purposes.

According to Internal Affairs department figures, 130 taxing units relied on all types of levies on coal, in addition to real estate taxes. Officials said these localities were stuck with the problem of making up the loss from abandonment of the coal levy.

Real Estate Saturated
In past years, they said, taxing agencies turned to coal after real estate taxation hit the saturation point.

Citizens residing in school districts where the coal tax was in effect may pay such levies as per capita, or occupation or poll taxes, the department said.

The department cast a gloomy note on collections, however, pointing out that experience shows only about 50 per cent of the head taxes imposed are reaped by local governments.

Department figures disclose 154 township school districts, 12 townships and 24 boroughs and borough school districts imposed coal levies.

Taxes ranged from about one-half cent a ton to a high of 20 cents a ton in Plains township school district. Levies were imposed on coal mined, loaded and delivered.

Court Rules Out Tax
After many attempts to discredit the taxing of coal in the state's courts, the coal operators goal was finally reached in June when the state supreme court ruled coal taxes illegal.

The General Assembly meanwhile amended the local 1947 tax law which permitted local bodies to "tax anything not already taxed by the state." The amendments wipe coal taxes from the tax broadener, mainstay of local taxation.

Revolutions Not Comical To Opera Star In Guatemala

NEW YORK, July 25.—(INS)—Banana republic revolutions—often compared to comic operas—are neither laugh-producing nor musical. Ask the lady who's been through one.

Mona Paulee, Metropolitan opera mezzo-soprano, now in Guatemala City for a series of performances found:

Although phone and communications were cut off during the recent military rebellion in the Central American Republic, Mona persuaded one of the last pilots who left Guatemala City to mail a letter to International News Service when he reached New Orleans.

Wrote the attractive singer: "I've often wondered how it would feel to have guns going off all around you, to watch planes drop bombs, to hear tanks roaring over the streets. . . Now I know. . ."

Mona added that although the revolution ended, with the government still in power, no one was quite sure what would happen to the opera.

Dog Psychologist Says Dogs Are Just Like Human Beings

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—(INS)—Clarence E. Harbison, self-styled canine psychologist who claims to have "treated" several thousand problem dogs, arrived in San Francisco with one of the "cured patients" he has "analyzed."

Does your pup nip the mailman? Does he get nervous and excited over the least provocation? Does he snap suddenly when you're petting him?

If he does, says Harbison, your dog is neurotic. But don't worry. Take the case of a two-year-old doberman pinscher recently brought to him as a hopelessly "bad dog."

Harbison explained the dog had been rejected by its owners. The wife in the family had chased it down the cellar with a vacuum cleaner. The dog's mean tricks said Harbison, were its ways of getting revenge.

He claimed that after ten weeks of his treatment, the dog was "a fine pet." He said:

"I look at dogs as human beings. They are just like us. They like a little attention."

But good or bad, it's still a dog's life.

Program Planned To Improve State Game Conditions

HARRISBURG, July 25.—(INS)—The state and federal governments joined today in a program to improve game conditions in the half-million acre Allegheny National Forest in northwestern Pennsylvania.

Thomas D. Frye, director of the Pennsylvania Game commission, said the agreement was signed by President Ross L. Lefler and Regional Forester R. M. Evans, of the U. S. Forest Service. The forest embraces parts of Elk, Forest, McKean and Warren counties.

The statement explained that the agreement increases by nearly 50 per cent the acreage of public hunting land in Pennsylvania and provides for cooperative wildlife administration.

Food and cover, restocking, protection, predator control, emergency winter feeding timber management and forest harvesting will be part of the program under the master plan to be drafted by the two agencies.

A preliminary meeting to draft a work schedule is to be held at Warren early next month, according to Frye.

Survey Of Hazards Of State Employees Broadened Today

HARRISBURG, July 25.—(INS)—A survey of occupational hazards faced by the state's 40,000 government employees was broadened today by the joint State Government commission.

Rep. Baker Royer (R) Lancaster, chairman of the legislative fact-finding committee, explained that the commission's earlier study of working conditions will be rounded out with the results of the survey of ages and occupations, departments high accident rates and total work hours lost.

Gov. James H. Duff vetoed several bills liberalizing compensation, injury benefits or retirement for various classes of state workers with the explanation during the last session of the legislature that the JSGC study was a mandate not to act in haste.

The commission's recommendations for remedial legislation will be presented to the General Assembly in 1951.

Widow Of Jockey Files Damage Suit

CUMBERLAND, Md., July 25.—(INS)—Mrs. Letitia Leggett, widow of race horse jockey Benny Leggett, filed suit in Cumberland circuit court for $250,000 damages as a result of her husband's death last year when he was thrown from "Alpine Boy" at the Fairgo race track.

Named as defendants are the Cumberland Fair association, operators of the track; Dr. James A. Gross, veterinarian-owner of the horse, of Rock, Md.; Roy W. Albright, of Monks, Md.; and John B. Hatfield, of Baltimore, both trainers of the horse, and Dr. Frank M. Keller, chief veterinarian of the Maryland Racing commission.

Alpine Boy had been barred from the Charlestown, W. Va., track in 1947 with track officials terming him fractious and suffering from ophthalmia, known among horsemen as "moonblindness."

The limpkin is so called because the bird has a peculiar halting gait as it hunts along the ground. It is also called courlan or crying bird, from its long, prolonged, wailing cry.

Western District Legion To Meet

Delegates from the western district of Pennsylvania of the American Legion will meet in the American Legion Home at Indiana, Pa., at 2 p. m. Sunday, July 31, for the fourth annual meeting. The meeting will be presided over by Western Vice Commander Jack R. Dodson, when resolutions which will be presented at the department convention in Pittsburgh next month will be discussed and approved.

MUSEUM RECEIVES VALUABLE GIFTS

UNIONTOWN.—A valuable collection of early Pennsylvania heirlooms has been presented to the museum at Fort Necessity State Park, according to officials of the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters.

The collection, presented by a descendant of an early Fayette county family, Robert L. Brownfield, Jr., includes a large grandfather clock, hall rack and a collection of household linens made from flax grown in Fayette county and woven in a mill at Smithfield, Pa.

Removal Of Fish Made Necessary By Aqueduct Collapse

RIEGELSVILLE.—With the collapse of an aqueduct that carried the waters of the old Delaware canal over a creek between Riegelsville and Point Pleasant, a distance of 12 miles, it became necessary to remove the fish that were stranded by the receding waters, according to the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters.

Assisted by the Pennsylvania Fish Commission, employees of the Department of Forests and Waters moved an estimated 100,000 fish, some of them carp over 24 inches long.

The species of pan fish such as bass, pickerel, catfish and sunfish were moved to locations in Bucks county while the carp were returned to the Delaware river.

SPRING SOWING PROGRAM LARGEST IN STATE HISTORY

HARRISBURG.—Department of Forests and Waters officials have reported that the 1949 spring seed sowing program, completed in June, exceeded last year's, which up to that time was the largest ever made.

The department said a total of 6,742 pounds of seed were sown this year, while only 6,570 pounds were sown during the spring of 1948.

Officials also reported that the schedule calls for 19 species of forest trees to be available for shipment this autumn and in the spring of 1950.

Fewer Persons Die In Auto Accidents

HARRISBURG, July 25.—(INS)—Five hundred and fifty eight persons died in highway accidents in Pennsylvania during the first five months in 1949.

A comparison today with a similar period last year showed the total represented a decline of 40 deaths reported to the State Bureau of Highway Safety.

Last year, 1,555 persons died in traffic accidents. During last May, the bureau reported, 117 persons were injured fatally in road accidents, a decline of 15 from a similar month in 1948.

The bureau reported suspension of 11,608 operating licenses during the first five months of 1949 and revocation of 1,330 others.

United Engineering Takes Measure
Of First Half Winners
In First Match

In a Shagbushy playoff for the title of the City Golf league, the United Engineering team downed the strong Universal-Rundle team, which held first place most of the season, by the lopsided score of 26½ to 9½, at Sylvan Heights course Sunday afternoon.

The low-handicapped Universal team found the going a little too tough, with the United Engineering boys, always strong competitors, really on with their game.

John Schneider and Vic Rosati of the Universal-Rundle team were medalists with scores of 75, but the best Schneider could do was halve his match, while Rosati lost to Sleseski.

Saturday, the strong Castle club team advanced to the finals play when they defeated Shenango Pottery Local 3125 by a score of 8-4, playing off the tie which they found themselves in at the end of the regular league season.

The scores and points of the Universal Rundle-United match follow:

United Engineering—J. Fava 83, 5½ joints; A. Bucc 82, 3 points; Ted Woodrow 86, 4½ points; F. Cozza, capt., 81, 4 points; T. Sleseski 81, 6 points; A. Lasky 83, 3½ points.

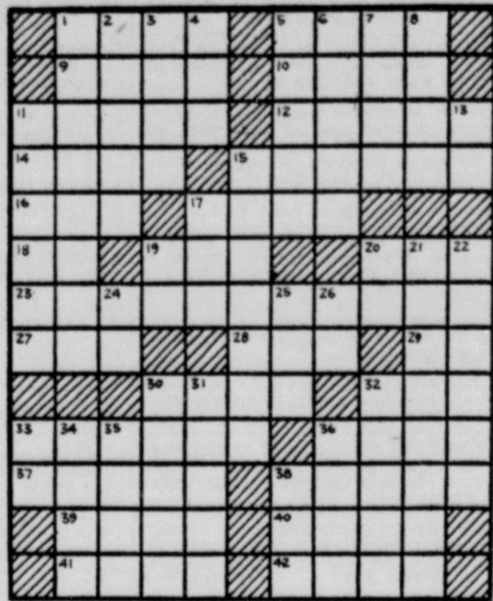

Universal-Rundle—I. Solomon 79, ½ point; J. Schneider 75, 3 points; J. Ferry 82, 1½ points; Frank Platek, capt., 83, 2 points; V. Rosati 75, 0 points; E. Gunther 81, 2½ points.

On August 7, the United team will play the winner of the Castle club-Morella's match, which will be played on Sunday, July 31, at Sylvan Heights, President Fred Lombardo of the City Golf league announced today.

ton, 7 to 5 and 5 to 2. Both Bob Lemon and Gene Rearden went the route for the Indians. Lemon won his own game in the opener with two homers, while Mickey Vernon contributed a pair of circuit clouds to aid Bearden in the nightcap.

A four-run rally in the 11th enabled the Yanks to down Detroit, 6 to 3.

Philadelphia's Athletics took fourth place away from the Tigers with two wins over the Chicago White Sox, 7 to 2 and 6 to 4.

The St. Louis Browns nosed out the Boston Red Sox, 9 to 8, on an eight-inning hit by rookie George Elder. In the nightcap, Jack Kramer of the Sox finally won a game, 8 to 4, after six straight losses.

PHILADELPHIA, July 25.—(INS)—Next Sunday will be "Nelson Fox" day at Shibe park.

The Athletics' flashy little second baseman will be honored by more than 500 fans from the Chambersburg area, who will present him with gifts between games of a double header with Detroit.

NEW YORK STOCKS
Only Slight Variations From Preceding Closings Recorded This Morning

NEW YORK, July 25.—(INS)—
The stock market was a highly mixed affair in early dealings today. A few issues attracted buying, but most stocks showed only slight variations from previous closings.

Studebaker was actively bought, advancing 3/8 to a new high for the year at 22. The stock has been in demand since issuance of its earnings report for the first six months, showing a sizable increase over 1948.

Other motor shares did little. General Motors was unchanged at 60 1/4, while Chrysler eased 1/4 to 49 3/4.

Among the pivotal favorites, U. S. Steel was unchanged at 27 1/2; DuPont was off 1/4 at 46 1/2; Bethlehem Steel up 1/4 to 27 1/2; General Electric up 1/4 at 37; and Westinghouse up 1/4 at 24 1/2.

Kennecott was a strong spot in the metals, gaining 1/2 point to 46 1/2; while Standard of New Jersey rose 1/4 to 67 1/2 in the oils. Commonwealth and Southern held unchanged at 45 on an opening transfer of 25,000 shares.

Small gains predominated among the rails. Pennsylvania, Union Pacific, Chesapeake and Ohio and Southern Pacific were slightly higher.

The bond market was irregular with rail issues leading the way. Wheat featured commodities with a gain of 1 1/4 cents a bushel. Corn rose 1/2 cent and cotton was steady.

State Purchases Forest Land In Bradford County

Much Of Area Lies In Asylum
Township. Near Village Built
By French

HARRISBURG—Purchase of the first state forest land in Bradford county was announced today by the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters. Approximately 3,000 acres of forest land has been acquired on Robbwood mountain, Bradford county.

A large part of the area lies in Asylum township, in the vicinity of the old French town of Azilum, planned in 1793 as a retreat for fugitives from the French Revolution.

Here in grateful memory of the aid given to the struggling Colonies by the French, under Lafayette, during the War of Independence, our new republic offered sanctuary to the remnants of the French monarchy.

The little village planned as an asylum for Marie Antoinette, queen of France, never saw the luckless queen and her children. It did, however, act as host for some of France's most illustrious names—generals, judges, statesmen and a king-to-be.

Among the visitors to the colony during the years of its existence were Gen. Louis deNoailles, Lafayette's brother-in-law, and the Duke de la Rochefoucauld, first gentleman of King Louis XVI court, whose unhappy lot it was to tell the King of the fall of the Bastille, before he (Rochefoucauld) made his escape from France to the new world.

Later Azilum was host to Napoleon's foreign minister and also to Louis Philippe, son of the Duc d'Orleans, who was to become a somewhat reluctant citizen king of French in exile.

MOVE TIMBER FOR HEIRS OF FORMER GOVERNOR JOHNSON

GREENSBURG—Approximately five hundred thousand board feet of timber was marked for removal for the heirs of former Governor William H. Johnson by farm foresters of the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters.

Governor Johnson, the state's chief executive from 1848 to 1852, lived on a 300 acre estate located along what is now U. S. Route 30 between Ligonier and Greensburg.

THOUSANDS VISIT PARKS
HARRISBURG—A total of 373,532 persons visited the state parks during the month of June, according to officials of the Department of Forests and Waters.

FRAULEIN Getta Rauch (above), 30, of Bad Gleichenberg, near Vienna, Austria, if everything goes according to plan, will wed 60-year-old Sam Hedge of Chicago, Ill., a grandfather. He courted the pretty girl by mail. Hedge plans to leave for Austria in October to claim his bride-to-be. The above photo was sent to Sam by Getta. (International)

Communist Chief Says Chennault's Warning Is Absurd

MANILA, July 25.—(INS)—The Communist party chieftain in the Philippines said Saturday that Gen. Claire Chennault's warning of forthcoming strikes and riots in the islands was absurd.

He denied charges by the former leader of the "Flying Tigers" that the Communists are planning widespread disorders.

Chennault, a strong advocate of the projected Pacific Pact was quoted as saying that Communist riots and strikes would spread throughout Asia on a definite time schedule this fall.

Philippine constabulary chief, Brig. Gen. Alberto Ramos, commented on Chennault's predictions:

"We are prepared for any eventuality. Personally and officially I do not believe Gen. Chennault's information is correct."

Man Is Killed On Roller Coaster At Conneaut Lake

CONNEAUT LAKE PARK, Pa., July 25.—(INS)—Police searched today for a mysterious woman who hurried away after her male companion plunged to his death from the roller coaster "Blue Streak" in Conneaut Park.

Deputy Coroner Daniel Maloney said the death plunge of Reed Cramer, 38, of Greenville, Pa., apparently was accidental. But he wants to question the woman who was seated beside Cramer during the ride last night.

A couple behind Cramer said he stood up as the coaster roared down the last incline into the level stretch.

State Warns That Rubber Boats Can Be Very Dangerous

HARRISBURG—Use of W. A. A. surplus property rubber boats on the waters of the state may be very dangerous, according to officials of the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters.

Rubber deteriorates rapidly when exposed to the elements, and there is no way of knowing when a rubber boat will give way.

Because of the difficulty of examining and testing the rubber in these crafts, the department advises they be used with caution and preferably in shallow waters.

Seventy-one per cent of the population of Columbia, South America, is illiterate.
